

Chapter 1 - GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sections:

1-1. - How Code designated and cited.

The ordinances embraced in this and the following chapters and sections shall constitute and be designated "The Code of the Town of North Wilkesboro, North Carolina," and may be so cited. Such Code may also be cited as "North Wilkesboro Town Code."

1-2. - Definitions and rules of construction.

In the construction of this Code and of all ordinances, the following definitions and rules of construction shall be observed, unless inconsistent with the manifest intent of the board of commissioners or the context clearly requires otherwise:

Board of Commissioners. The phrase "board of commissioners" shall mean the governing body of the Town of North Wilkesboro, North Carolina.

Computation of Time. The time within which an act is to be done shall be computed by excluding the first and including the last day; and if the last day is Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday, that shall be excluded.

County. The word "county" shall mean the County of Wilkes in the State of North Carolina, except as otherwise provided.

Gender. Words importing the masculine gender shall include the feminine and neuter.

Joint Authority. All words giving a joint authority to three or more persons or officers shall be construed as giving such authority to a majority of such persons or officers.

Month. The word "month" shall mean a calendar month.

Number. Words used in the singular include the plural and the plural includes the singular number.

Oath. The word "oath" shall be construed to include an affirmation in all cases in which, by law, an affirmation may be substituted for an oath, and in such cases the words "swear" and "sworn" shall be equivalent to the words "affirm" and "affirmed."

Official Time Standard. Whenever certain hours are named in this Code, they shall mean standard time or daylight saving time, as may be in current use in this town.

Owner. The word "owner," applied to any property, shall include any part owner, joint owner, tenant in common, joint tenant or tenant by the entirety, of the whole or a part of such property.

Person. The word "person" shall include a corporation, firm, partnership, association, organization and any other group acting as a unit, as well as an individual.

"Personal property" includes every species of property except real property, as herein defined.

Preceding, Following. The words "preceding" and "following" shall mean next before and next after, respectively.

Property. The word "property" shall include real and personal property.

"Real property" shall include lands, tenements and hereditaments.

Shall; May. The word "shall" is mandatory, and the word "may" is permissive.

Sidewalk. The word "sidewalk" shall mean any portion of a street, between the curb line and the adjacent property line intended for the use of pedestrians.

"Signature" or "subscription" includes a mark when the person cannot write.

State. The word "state" shall be construed to mean the State of North Carolina, except as otherwise provided.

Street. The word "street" shall mean and include any public way, road, highway, street, avenue, boulevard, parkway, alley, lane, viaduct, bridge and the approaches thereto within the town and shall mean the entire width of the right-of-way between abutting property lines.

Tenant. The words "tenant" or "occupant" applied to a building or land shall include any person who occupies the whole or a part of such building or land, whether alone or with others.

Time. Words used in the past or present tense include the future as well as the past and present.

Town. The words "the town" shall mean the Town of North Wilkesboro, in the County of Wilkes and the State of North Carolina, except as otherwise provided.

Writing. The words "writing" and "written" shall include printing and any other mode of representing words and letters.

Year. The word "year" shall mean a calendar year.

1-3. - Provisions considered as continuations of existing ordinances.

The provisions appearing in this Code, so far as they are the same as those of ordinances adopted prior to the adoption of this Code and included herein, shall be considered as continuations thereof and not as new enactments.

1-4. - Catchlines of sections.

The catchlines of the several sections of this Code are intended as mere catchwords to indicate the contents of the section and shall not be deemed or taken to be Titles of such sections nor as any part thereof, nor, unless expressly so provided, shall they be so deemed when any of such sections, including the catchlines, are amended or reenacted.

1-5. - Severability of parts of Code.

It is hereby declared to be the intention of the board of commissioners that the sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses and phrases of this Code are severable, and if any phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph or section of this Code shall be declared unconstitutional or otherwise invalid by the valid judgment or decree of any court of competent jurisdiction, such unconstitutionality or invalidity shall not affect any of the remaining phrases, clauses, sentences, paragraphs and sections of this Code, since they would have been enacted by the board of commissioners without the incorporation in this Code of any such unconstitutional or invalid phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph or section.

1-6. - General penalty—Continuing violations.

Wherever in this Code or in any ordinance of the town or in any rule, regulation, order or notice of any officer or agency of the town, under authority duly vested in him or it, any act is prohibited or is made or declared to be unlawful or an offense or a misdemeanor, or wherever in such Code, ordinance, rule, regulation, order or notice the doing of any act is required or the failure to do any act is declared to be unlawful or an offense or misdemeanor, where no specific penalty is provided therefor, the violation of any such provision of this Code or any such ordinance, rule, regulation, order or notice shall be punished as provided in Section 14-4 of the General Statutes of North Carolina as amended by Chapter 446 of the 1991 Session Laws, with violators of an ordinance regarding the operation or parking of vehicles responsible for a penalty not to exceed fifty dollars for each separate violation and violators of all other ordinances subject to a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars or imprisonment for not more than thirty days for each separate violation; provided, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, the violation of any provision contained in Divisions 1 or 3 of Article V of Chapter 11 of this Code is, by virtue of the provisions of Section 160A-175 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, not subject to the penalty provisions of Section 144 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, and the violation of any such provision shall give rise to a civil penalty only, as provided in Section 160A-175 (c) of the General Statutes of North Carolina, and shall be enforced in the nature of a civil claim for relief against the offending party. Each day any violation of this Code or of any ordinance, rule, regulation, order or notice shall continue shall constitute a separate offense, except as may otherwise be specifically provided.

1-7. - Extraterritorial jurisdiction.

In accordance with the authority conferred by Article 19, Zoning Ordinance

For extension of extraterritorial jurisdiction (ETJ), the Town must provide mailed notice thirty days prior to ETJ hearing; the Town may hold one hearing (with single mailed notice) regarding ETJ and initial zoning amendment. (G.S. 160D-202(d).) The Town may hold hearings in anticipation of change in jurisdiction. (G.S. 160D-204.) ~~Statutes, having published notice of an intention to adopt an ordinance declaring the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the town and after holding public hearing on the same,~~ it is hereby declared that the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the town from and after the effective date of this section is and shall be the area hereinafter described. The Subdivision Regulations, Zoning Ordinance, ~~Historic Zoning Ordinance~~ and Planning Board Ordinance of the town, as in effect from time to time from and after the effective date of this section, shall apply to the area within the corporate limits of the town and to the extraterritorial area hereinafter described. The extraterritorial area specified in this section is shown on the "Official Zoning Map, North Wilkesboro, North Carolina," dated July, 1971, ~~which map is on file in the office of the town clerk~~ the map is maintained by the Planning Director and kept on file via paper and digital format in the Town Hall.
